Dear Mr. Horsey:

On May 2, 2000, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your May 15, 2000 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-The Commission is in receipt of copies of the initial solicitation sent to contributors and the follow-up request sent to individual contributors who need to provide occupation and name of employer information. Please verify if the requests include a pre-addressed return envelope or post card. Please be advised that any contributor information received after the contributions are reported must be filed on a memo Schedule(s) A with your next report, or, an amended report(s) for the period in which the contributions were originally disclosed.

An adequate response must be received at the Commission by June 14, 2000. Adequate responses received on or before this date will be taken into consideration in determining whether audit action will be initiated. Requests for extensions of time in which to respond will not be considered. Failure to provide an adequate response by this date may result in an audit of the committee. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act may also result in an enforcement action against the committee. Any response submitted by your committee will be placed on the public record and will be considered by the Commission prior to taking enforcement action.
